THE TABLE OF NATIONS

“This is the account of the families of Shem, Ham, and Japheth, the three sons of Noah. Many children were born to them after the great flood.”

GENESIS 10:1

“These are the clans that descended from Noah’s sons, arranged by nation according to their lines of descent. All the nations of the earth descended from these clans after the great flood.”

GENESIS 10:32

THE LINE OF JAPHETH

“Their descendants became the seafaring peoples that spread out to various lands, each identified by its own language, clan, and national identity.”

GENESIS 10:5

“May God expand the territory of Japheth! May Japheth share the blessing of Shem, and may Canaan be his servant.”

GENESIS 9:27

THE LINE OF HAM

“Nimrod... was the first heroic warrior on earth. Since he was the greatest hunter in the world, his name became proverbial. People would say, “This man is like Nimrod, the greatest hunter in the world.” He built his kingdom in the land of Babylonia, with the cities of Babylon, Erech, Akkad, and Calneh.”

GENESIS 10:8-10

“He was mighty in hunting and in sin before the Lord; for he was a hunter of the sons of men in their languages.”

THE JERUSALEM TARGUM

THE LINE OF SHEM

“Sons were also born to Shem, the older brother of Japheth. Shem was the ancestor of all the descendants of Eber. The descendants of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram.”

GENESIS 10:21-22

“Eber had two sons. The first was named Peleg (which means “division”), for during his lifetime the people of the world were divided into different language groups. His brother’s name was Joktan.”

GENESIS 10:25

SCATTERING & GATHERING

"You come from the Lord Adam and the Lady Eve. And that is both honor enough to erect the head of the poorest begger and shame enough to bow the shoulders of the greatest emperor on earth; Be content." -Aslan,
