Confronting Your Past

“O Lord, please rescue me from the hand of my brother, Esau. I am afraid that he is coming to attack me, along with my wives and children. But you promised me, ‘I will surely treat you kindly, and I will multiply your descendants until they become as numerous as the sands along the seashore—too many to count.’”

MOVING FORWARD

“We met your brother, Esau, and he is already on his way to meet you -with an army of 400 men!”

GENESIS 32:6

Jacob thought, “I will try to appease him by sending gifts ahead of me. When I see him in person, perhaps he will be friendly to me.”

ZECARIAH 4:6

WRESTLING WITH GOD

This left Jacob all alone in the camp, and a man came and wrestled with him until the dawn began to break.

When the man saw that he would not win the match, he touched Jacob's hip and wrenched it out of its socket. Then the man said, "Let me go, for the dawn is breaking..."

...Your name will no longer be Jacob," the man told him. "From now on you will be called Israel..."

GENESIS 32:24-26, 8

WALKING WITH A LIMP

Come, let us
return to the Lord...
He has torn us to pieces but He will heal us; He has injured us but He will bind up our wounds.

After two days He will revive us; on the third day He will restore us, that we may live in His presence.

That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses,
and in the insults, hardships, persecutions,
and troubles that I suffer for Christ.
For when I am weak, then I am strong.
