

From Bad to Worse

Suffering for Doing Good

We can rejoice, too, when we run into problems and trials, for we know that they help us develop endurance. And endurance develops strength of character, and character strengthens our confident hope of salvation.

BECOME MUCH.

Remember this:
Whoever sows sparingly
will also reap sparingly,
and whoever sows
generously will also reap generously.

Joseph's 'Blessing'

GENESIS 39:21

While Joseph was there in the prison, the LORD was with him and extended kindness to him,
GRANTING HIM FAVOR IN THE EYES OF THE PRISON WARDEN.

Take It Home:

Joseph's story challenges one of the assumptions we often make:

“If I do what is right, God will make my life go well.”

But Joseph did what was right and things got worse. And yet, three times in the story we are reminded:

“The Lord was with Joseph.”

And I wonder if that changes the way we think about our own lives. Because sometimes we look at our circumstances and think, “Where is God? I’m trying to do the right thing.

Why are all these bad things happening?”

Difficult circumstances aren't evidence that God has abandoned us...

But sometimes they become the very tools God uses to transform us.

Here's the challenge:

Do the right thing - even when doing the right thing doesn't seem to be working... God WILL bless it.
