honorable behavior,

honor to God

1 PETER 2:12

HE NOTICED...

The art of noticing.

In the hustle of daily life, we often overlook the small details that add richness to our experiences.

The art of noticing is about slowing down and paying attention to the world around us. It's about appreciating the beauty in the everyday. From the way sunlight filters through leaves and the sound of laughter in a crowded room to the warmth of smiles and curtains gently blowing in the wind.

When we practice the art of noticing, we become more connected to ourselves, to others, and to the world. We start to live more intentionally as we begin to notice how much there is to be grateful for everyday; and we find joy in the little things as we discover that life is richer and more meaningful when we take the time to truly see it.

SOME OF THE HOLIEST WORK WE DO IS SIMPLY NOTICING PEOPLE.

THE LONELY.
THE OVERLOOKED.
THE HURTING.
THE ONES JESUS NEVER WALKED PAST.

SPEAK THE TRUTH,

VOICE SHAKES.

FORGOTTEN

“Pharaoh’s chief cup-bearer,
however, forgot all about Joseph,
never giving him another thought.”

GENESIS 40:23

TAKE IT HOME:

Joseph did everything right, yet remained in prison...

DON'T LET YOUR CIRCUMSTANCES DETERMINE YOUR FAITHFULNESS.

We can't control outcomes or timing, but we can control our response.
Keep following Jesus, keep serving others, and keep using your gifts.
Trust God with what we cannot see or understand.

*“AT THE PROPER TIME WE WILL REAP
A HARVEST IF WE DO NOT GIVE UP.”*

... AND LEAVE THE NEXT CHAPTER IN GOD'S HANDS.
